Police release CCTV stills of two women they want to speak to in connection with theft from a shopper in Buxton.

At around 1pm on Monday, April 7, two women entered Lomas Foods store on Spring Gardens, Buxton and stole an envelope containing cash from the jacket pocket of a 70-year-old shopper.

The women pictured in the CCTV images were seen in the shop at the time of the theft and officers are keen to speak to them.

The first woman is described as slim build wearing a black leather jacket and a printed scarf. She was olive skinned with black shoulder length hair.

The second woman is described as olive skinned, slim build and wore dark clothing with her hair tied up in a bun.

Do you recognise the women in the CCTV images? If so, call Local Intelligence Officer Claire Gyte on 101, the non-emergency number for Derbyshire police.

To report a crime anonymously call Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.
