Man is charged with rape in Glossop.

Detectives have charged a man with rape of an 18-year-old girl as she was walking home in Glossop.

The victim was walking in a church yard off Church Street, on Monday, May 26, when she was assaulted by a man.

The victim suffered serious facial injuries during the incident and was later treated at Manchester Royal Infirmary.

Stefan Hague (24) of Quarry Close was charged today (Friday, May 30) with rape and will appear at North East Derbyshire and Dales Magistrates Court tomorrow (Saturday, May 31).
