

You are here: Home » News and Appeals » Police reassure the public after false allegations of a child abduction in Chesterfield

Police reassure the public after false allegations of a child abduction in Chesterfield

Posted on 3rd October 2014

 Print  Download

Police would like to reassure the public after rumours that a man tried to abduct a girl in Chesterfield.

On Wednesday, October 1 at 5pm police received reports that a man in a car on Salisbury Avenue attempted to pull an 11-year-old girl into his car.

Officers would like to inform the public that these were false allegations and the matter has now been resolved.

 Like 0  Share  Tweet  Share