

You are here: Home » News and Appeals » Woman seriously injured in A628 collision

Woman seriously injured in A628 collision

Posted on 23rd October 2014

Print Download

Police are investigating a serious collision on the A628 Woodhead Pass in north Derbyshire.

The two vehicle collision, involving a Vauxhall Tigra and a Skoda Superb, happened just after midnight today (Thursday October 23) near the junction with the A6024.

The driver of the Vauxhall, a 31-year-old woman who is believed to live in the Nottingham area, is being treated for serious injuries in Manchester Royal Infirmary. Her family has been contacted.

The Skoda driver, who is a 51-year-old man from the Chesterfield area, was taken to hospital in Barnsley. The extent of his injuries is not known at this time but they are not thought to be serious.

The road was closed until 7.30am.

Anyone who witnessed the collision, but has not yet contacted the police, should do so by ringing 101.

Like 0 Share Tweet G+ Share