Police seek the driver of a car who gave a woman a lift in Alvaston.

On Saturday, August 30 at approximately 5.30pm an Asian man and a white woman were arguing on Penzance Road. The woman then walked off in the direction of Coronation Drive.

The woman flagged a white or silver car down with a female driver who gave her a lift.

Police would like to trace the driver of the car.

Anyone with information is asked to contact Detective Constable Pete Matthewman using the non-emergency 101 number.
