Police are appealing for witnesses after an indecent exposure outside Foston Hall Prison.

On Monday, April 6 at 12.40am a man walked up to the gates of the prison, lay down and exposed himself.

Police have released images of a man that they would like to speak to in connection with this incident.

The man who was seen at the prison was described as white and was wearing a black hooded long cloak.

Anyone who recognises the man is asked to contact PC Jessica McCafferty at Swadlincote police station on 101 quoting crime number 15236/15.

To report crime anonymously call Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.
