

You are here: Home » News and Appeals » Sentimental jewellery stolen from a house in Long Eaton

Sentimental jewellery stolen from a house in Long Eaton

Posted on 19th September 2017  Print  Download

Officer's investigating a burglary are appealing for information.

On Saturday, September 16 between 3.30pm and 5.30pm a house on Haslemere Road in Long Eaton was allegedly broken into.

A gold Omega watch, with a white face and a brown leather strap, which is of sentimental value to the owner, was taken. A floral bag and cash is also missing.

A 36-year-old man has been arrested on suspicion of burglary and remains in police custody.

Anyone with information is asked to contact PC Nikita Devney on 101 quoting reference number 17000398206.

Alternatively, send her a message online by visiting the Contact Us section of our website www.derbyshire.police.uk/Contact-Us.

You can also call Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

 Like 0  Share  Tweet  Share